Stakeholders’ Feedback Analysis Report (2019-20)

Teachers’ Feedback

We follow curriculum prescribed by the affiliating University, but for delivering curriculum each faculty prepares curriculum delivery plan. Teachers are the best stakeholders who can provide in depth analysis and can provide valuable suggestions on improvisation and development of the curriculum. For this purpose we collected feedback from them and an analysis report was prepared.

S. No.	Particular	Excellent	Very Good	Satisfactory	Poor
1	The curriculum covers core aspects of the domain.	12	14	2	2
2	The curriculum is sufficient to cover the program outcomes.	12	15	2	1
3	The Curriculum inculcates ethics and societal values among the students.	14	15	1	0
4	Syllabus contains well defined course objectives and outcomes.	10	15	2	3
5	The number of theory hours to the course are sufficient.	13	13	2	2
6	The course has a good balance between theory and practical application.	20	9	0	1
7	Number of textbooks and reference books are prescribed in syllabus.	27	2	1	0

Teachers Feedback regarding Curriculum (2019-20)

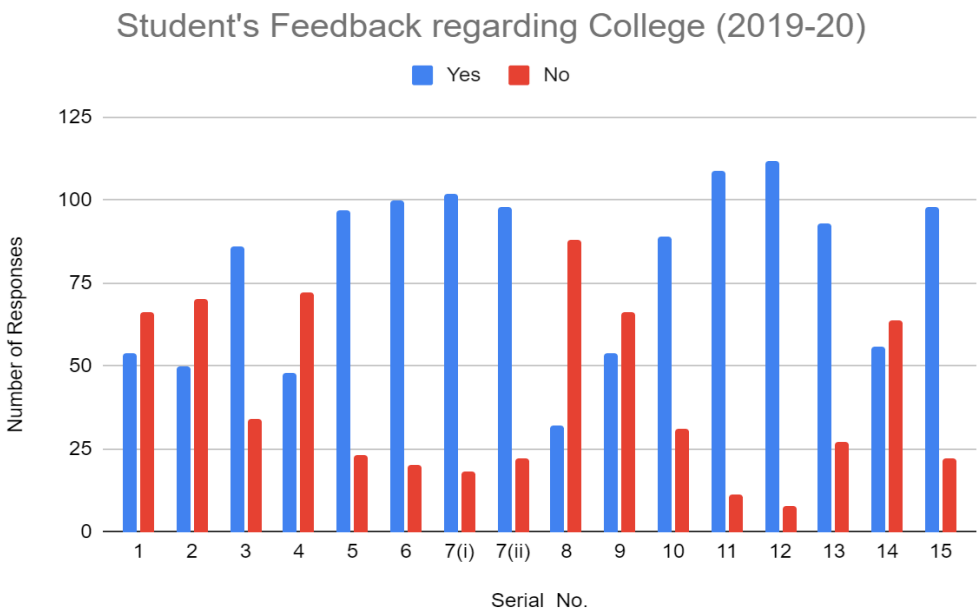

The results show that almost 90% teachers say that the curriculum covers core aspects of the domain and curriculum is sufficient to cover the program outcomes. An overview of the result shows that almost all teachers are satisfied with the curriculum prescribed, still a few teachers want an update in curriculum as they are not happy with the curriculum of their subjects.

Students’ Feedback

Students are the most important stakeholders of any institute. For both internal and external quality assurance, interest and participation of the students, feedback is an integral part. Thus feedback from 120 UG and PG students was collected randomly and a report was prepared.

Sr. No.	Particulars	Yes	No
1	Is the college office helpful in administrative matters?	54	66

It is evident from the feedback of college alumni that they are happy to be a part of the college, they appreciate learning which they had as a student of college and assert that college has been progressing and they have their say in academic activities and somewhat in policy making, sometime they also want to support the institute financially also.

Suggestions and Conclusion

Further all the stakeholders were asked to put their suggestions regarding curriculum at the end of their feedback form, those suggestions are summarized as follows:

1. Curriculum should involve more field work/project work as a part of syllabus.
2. Syllabus should be revised frequently as per the demand of industries.
3. The college should take care of cleanliness in classrooms and toilets.
4. The college administration should regulate food item pricing in the college canteen.
5. The college should consider the demands of its old students for taking financial help from them.
6. The college should involve its alumni in more activities.

Stakeholders' Feedback Analysis (2019-20)

Action Taken Report

Our college is a Govt. aided college, which is affiliated to Ch Bansi Lal University. We adhere to the curriculum prescribed by the university only and have no choice to change it in any case. So we can not alter the syllabus in any form. The faculty prepares a teaching plan for effective delivery of the curriculum in each aspect. We communicate the suggestions to the university via our staff in BOS and give a feedback report to the concerned authorities.

On the basis of the feedback received from the students actions are taken as under:

- We have taken strict action for the cleanliness and hygiene in the campus, especially toilets.
- To assure the food quality and fair prices the instructions have been passed to the canteen operator.
- Regarding awareness of suggestion/complaint/problem box and redressal cell it has been decided that proper information will be provided in annual orientation and class orientation programmes in future.

As per feedback received from the alumni we have considered their request to help the institution economically and put it the same before our college governing body for their kind consideration.
